Parc Map

Discover all the beauty that Twente has to offer.

A photograph of a bird of prey, possibly a buzzard, in flight. The bird is shown from the side, with its wings spread wide, revealing detailed feather patterns. It is flying over a dense forest with green foliage. The lighting suggests a sunny day, with some areas of the forest appearing bright and others in shadow. The overall composition is serene and naturalistic.

The Nature of Twente

In the heart of Twente, near the cozy Haaksbergen, you will find an abundance of nature. Expansive forests, open fields and glistening bodies of water form a versatile landscape that offers peace and adventure. More than half of the region is pure nature, ideal for hikers, cyclists and those seeking tranquility. With more than 1,500 kilometers of walking and cycling paths, including routes through the enchanting Lankheet, the beautiful Buurserzand and the unique Aamsveen, there is always something new to discover. Every corner reveals a new atmosphere, from beautiful hills to colorful plains. Whether you are looking for peace or an active day with your camera, here you live in harmony with nature. Discover the endless paths and let yourself be enchanted by the charm of Twente.
